

GEORGIA TECH COUNSELING CENTER
PEER COACHING PROGRAM
Recommendation Form Application
Deadline: April 14, 2017

Candidate's Name: _____

The Counseling Center trains a small, select group of students to assist Center staff in meeting the mental health needs of Georgia Tech students through the provision of one-on-one peer support and education. Peer coaches may also contribute to the Center's mission through participation in psychoeducational workshops (primary prevention) and other activities to raise awareness about mental health. A student's success in the peer coaching role depends on a number of important personal qualities and characteristics, such as strong leadership and social skills, assertiveness, good judgment, initiative, follow-through and commitment. Peer Coaches receive training in areas such as college student development, cultural awareness, ethics, communication and helping skills and crisis intervention.

1. Please take a moment to consider the Peer Coaching candidate as you have known him/her in your official capacity and rate the candidate on the following:
