Your Mental Health Matters

Moderated by Dean Stephanie Ray

A Community Dialogue on Diversity, Inclusion, Well-being, and Access to Care

VIRTUAL EVENT

OCT 28th 10 AM - 4 PM (LUNCH AT NOON)

The mental health and well-being needs of Georgia Tech’s BIPOC, including AAPI, and underserved students are impacted by the various isms that create social injustices, inequities, and limited access to resources. This session will feature a panel discussion to inform the development of personal, community, and systemic wellness practices and access to resources.
